

Ham 73 - Repeaterisms

Dr. Marc & Rosemary Durham, Theway Labs, Bixby, OK © 241227

These illustrations of appropriate ham communications come through the efforts of numerous people. This version arrives courtesy of Kevin Custer's site, which gives all the credits. We received written permission. Thanks, Kevin.

<http://www.repeater-builder.com/repeaterisms/repeaterisms.html>.

Since its original recording, #4 rule have been modified. No longer is the identification of the location required. Just drop /mobile 8 from this example, and you are good.

	Downloadable file	Topic:
1	rptism01.mp3 , 228kb	Short transmissions
2	rptism02.mp3 , 220kb	Think before transmitting
3	rptism03.mp3 , 278kb	Pause between conversation handovers
4	rptism04.mp3 , 278kb	Identify properly
5	rptism05.mp3 , 245kb	Be Courteous
6	rptism06.mp3 , 185kb	Use simplex when possible
7	rptism07.mp3 , 269kb	Use low power when possible
8	rptism08.mp3 , 288kb	Support your local repeater club
9	rptism09.mp3 , 228kb	Butting in is not nice
10	rptism10.mp3 , 165kb	Blessed are those who listen
11	rptism11.mp3 , 414kb	Watch what you say
12	rptism12.mp3 , 216kb	One thought per transmission
13	rptism13.mp3 , 303kb	State your purpose
14	rptism14.mp3 , 197kb	When testing, say so, and be brief
15	rptism15.mp3 , 252kb	ID your station
16	rptism16.mp3 , 681kb	Certain words ... OH NO YOU DON'T !!

Although in an intriguing format, if you follow these illustrations, you will know how to talk on the radio.

Bill Hamilton's style seems appropriate for a King James group.

Life is good! Enjoy

